

Complete the sentences below using the key words _____ can spread from person to person through the air, through person-to-person contact (touching hands, hugging, kissing) or by touching contaminated surfaces.

Colds and flus are the most common type of infection in the classroom and among the most _____.

Common _____ of a respiratory infection can include

_____, sore throat, _____, and sometimes a runny or blocked nose.

We can prevent microbes being transmitted from person to person by covering our _____ and _____ with a tissue and throwing away the tissue immediately.

We should always wash our hands with soap and water, or _____ if soap and water are not available, immediately after throwing away the tissue.

Although there are many _____ microbes that can make us ill, we can prevent some infections by getting _____.

Key words:

headaches, hand sanitiser, fever, vaccinations, symptoms, microbes, sneezes, coughs, harmful, contagious